

Plaintiffs and Defendants and their respective counsels are present and filed compromised petition U/o 23 Rule 3 of CPC a/w hand sketch in respect to schedule A and B property and memo a/w self attested copies of their Aadhar cards.

Perused the terms of compromise. It appears that both the parties to the suit are agreed to resolve their dispute in terms of compromise. The terms of compromise are appears to be just and lawful one. Hence, the compromise petition is accepted. Both the parties to the suit are admitted the terms of compromise. Hence, I am of the view that there is no hurdle to accept the compromise. Hence, compromise petition taken on record.

Hence, compromise petition is accepted.

Draw final decree accordingly.

The compromise petition and hand sketch are the part and parcel of the decree

Sd/-

(SRI.VENKATESHA NAIKA V.)

I Addl.Sr.Civil Judge & CJM, Dharwad.