1. This suit is filed by one Mahadevappa against Ramanna S/o. Mudakappa. One Basappa is my father and one Yallappa is my father's brother. One Basappa S/o. Mudakappa Akki is my father's brother. One Mahadevappa (Plaintiff) and defendant No.2 are Sons of the said Mudakappa Akki. Defendant No.3 is the wife of my father's brother (Basappa). Defendant Nos.4 to 6 are daughters of Mudakappa Akki.

2. Basappa, Yallappa and myself had applied to Land Tribunal for granting occupancy right to us regarding the suit property. The said Basappa Urf Mudakappa Akki is the father of the plaintiff and defendant No.2.

3. I do not know read and write Kannada language. In accordance with our application before the Land Tribunal, suit property was granted in our name (Basappa, Yallappa and myself) as per the description in Ex.P.23. As per the shares granted in Ex.P.23, Basappa, Yallappa and myself were cultivating our respective shares in the suit property.

4. The plaintiff (PW1) has given instructions for drafting the facts deposed in my chief examination affidavit. I do not have any personal knowledge regarding the facts deposed in my chief examination affidavit.

5. My paternal uncle by name Basappa Urf Mudakappa Akki is the eldest amongst myself, Basappa and Yallappa. I have preferred an application before the Land Tribunal by myself for grant of suit property. My father by name Basavanneppa Akki was not alive during the time when I had preferred the said application. Since my father's brothers by name Yallappa Akki and Mudakappa Akki had instructed me to tendered the said application, I had preferred the application in the capacity of Manager of the Hindu Undivided Family.

Further cross examination of PW1 is deferred.
