Cross Examination by : Sri. NMI (Learned counsel for defendant Nos.1 to 4).

I have not pursued school education. One Mehabubasab is my father. We are five children to our father. I know the names of all my siblings. I am seeking that portion of the property that fell to the share of the mother. I used to visit my mother frequently and I do not know the reason for having bequeathed the property in my name.

2. I have left Abedabegam Lalasab Bendigeri as a party to the suit. I do not know the manner in which Mabusab had acquired to the suit property. The extent of the suit property is measuring 3 Acres 24

Guntas and 2 Acres 38 Guntas. I have know the boundaries of the suit property as I am an illiterate. I do not know the survey number of the suit property. I am residing at Goa prior to my marriage. The suit property was given for cultivation by my mother to a person at Hubballi. Thereafter I have knowledge regarding the person who have given the said suit property.

3. I have not executed any sale agreement in favour of Irafrankhan Munirkhan Jhagiradar concerning the suit property (The learned counsel for the defendant Nos.1 to 4 submits that he has not laid foundation for the said question in the written statement. Accordingly, the said question is hit by provision of law enacted in Section 138 R/w. 5 of Indian Evidence Act. Hence, the question stands rejected.)

Cross-Examination: Deferred.
