AGE: 41 YEARS
DESGINATION: GENERAL PRACTITIONAR
R/O: LAXMESHWARA

Witness duly sworn on 23.12.2025.

Chief examination by L/APP

I have discharged by my duty as General Duty Medical Officer(GDMO) in the Primary Health Care Center Gudageri during the period from 04.09.2016 to 04.09.2018.

The Patient by name Ajamsab S/o. Bashesab Mulla CW-1 form Kalas village was sent on 18.05.2018 around 7.00 pm to the Primary Heath Care Center, Gudageri the Patient was accompanied by his wife CW-4. He had some injuries as follows:

1. Swelling present over frontal part of the head with minor bleed.
2. small multiple scratches over palmar aspect of left fore arm.

I have conducted general physical examination of the patient . In may opinion injuries are simple in nature and the age of the wounds on the given date were 1 to 2 days old.

The wound certificate of CW-1 is identified and marked as Ex P-5 the signature of witness on Ex P-5 is marked as P-5(a).

The another Patient by name Haseenbanu W/o. Ajamsab Mulla CW-4 form Kalas was sent on 18.05.2018 around 7.00 pm to the Primary Heath Care Center, Gudageri the Patient was accompanied by her Husband CW-1. She had some injuries as follows:

1. Swelling with minor bleeding present over right and left frontal part of the head.

I have conducted general physical examination of the patient .

In my opinion injuries are simple in nature and the age of the wounds on the given date were 1 to 2 days old.

The wound certificate of CW-1 is identified and marked as Ex P-6 the signature of witness on Ex P-6 is marked as P-6(a).

Cross examination by Sri. GBS Advocate for Accused.

It is true to suggest that the injuries sustained to CW-1 and 4 are simple in nature. It is true to suggest that there are every possibilities of a person sustaining injuries as sustained by CW-1 and 4 if a person falls down on a hard surface. It is false to suggest that I by issuing false wound certificate as per Ex P-5 and 6 is deposing false.
