

Sri. BCJ advocate files power for Defendants.

Plaintiff filed memo along with documents.

The Plaintiff and defendants are present and they have submitted that the matter may be referred to Lok Adalath. Hence, call before daily Lok Adalath at 04.30 P. M.

Sd/-

Senior Civil Judge and JMFC,
Navalgund

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE DAILY LOK
ADALATH DTD 03-07-2026

Case called out before Daily Lok Adalath.

The Plaintiff and defendants and their respective counsel are present. They submitted that, the parties have arrived into compromise.

They have filed the compromise petition U/o XXIII Rule 3 CPC. I perused the same. On Perusal the same, this court is of opinion that, the compromise is in the interest of parties. The terms of the compromise petition are explained to all parties in the language known to them and they admit the correctness. They understood the same. I also perused identity cards of the parties to prove their identity. I enquired with the parties they submit that, they have voluntarily entered into compromise as per the compromise petition. The compromise appears to be lawful one and not against the public policy. Hence, we proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The petition filed U/o XXIII Rule 3 of C.P.C is hereby allowed.

The suit of plaintiff is decreed according to terms of Compromise and as such Compromise petition is accepted.

Compromise petition shall be part and parcel of compromise decree.

Office is directed to draw decree as per the compromise petition.

Sd/-

(Manjunath P. Panaghanti)
Senior Civil Judge and JMFC,
Judicial Conciliator,
Navalgund.

Sd/-

(Sri. P. K. Angadi)
Non-Judicial Conciliator,
Navalgund.