

As per the report and photograph submitted by the PC No.983 of Annigeri P. S., Complainant branch was closed. The photograph further discloses that the P.C. concerned has affixed the Court notice to the door of the said branch. The photo further discloses the date and time and GPS location.

Complainant called out. Absent. It is noticed that counsel for the complainant has retired from the case. Thereafter court notice was issued to the complainant. Today despite of service of notice, the complainant remained absent.

It shows that complainant is not having interest over the case. Accordingly case is hereby dismissed for default.
