ORDER

Case Called before Lok-Adalath. Both parties have filed Joint memo.

Perused the documents placed before the court.

The suit is one for Partition. Both the parties have entered into compromise and have filed the present joint memo.

Read over the terms of settlement between the parties and the parties have accepted its correctness and submitted that they have voluntarily entered into compromise and there is no compulsion. The terms of compromise are neither opposed to law nor any public policy and hence, this court finds no impediment in accepting the joint memo and accordingly proceed to pass the following:
