

IA/01/2026, IA/02/2026 & IA/03/2026

CBI Vs. Gouttephone Technology Pvt. Ltd. & Ors.
FIR/RC No. RC-221/2020/E-0011
U/S. 13(2) r/w 13(1)(d) PC Act r/w 120-B/420 IPC

07.04.2026

Three separate fresh applications moved on behalf of applicants i.e. accused Ramesh Kumar and his two sureties Ms. Kavita Kiran and Sh. Shiv Narayan Jha, are received through Bail & Filing Section, RADDC, ND.

Present: Sh. Vikas Nagar, Ld. Counsel for Applicants i.e. accused Ramesh Kumar and his two sureties Ms. Kavita Kiran and Sh. Shiv Narayan Jha.
Ms. Amita Verma, Ld. PP for CBI.

File is taken up today on the aforesaid applications.

The first application (IA/01/2026) has been moved on behalf of applicant/accused Ramesh Kumar seeking release of personal bond/FDRs and further discharging the sureties alongwith affidavit pursuant to order dated 06.12.2025 passed in Misc. DJ ASJ No.584/2025 whereby, he was permitted to travel abroad.

The second and third applications (IA/02/2026 & IA/03/2026) have been moved on behalf of applicants/sureties of accused Ramesh seeking release of FDR with affidavit.

However, at this stage, Ld. Counsel for applicants submits that under the instructions of his clients/applicants he wants to withdraw the present applications. His statement to this effect is recorded separately.

In view of the statement of Ld. Counsel for applicants, the instant applications are dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to file afresh.

Contd...2/-

: 2 :

Applications stand disposed of accordingly.

(Arun Sukhija)
Special Judge (PC Act) (CBI-20)
RADC/New Delhi/07.04.2026
(AK)