

OS 197/2024

Case is called before the Lok Adalath.

Learned counsel for the plaintiff and defendants have filed compromise petition on behalf of the plaintiff and defendants along with xerox copies of adhar cards.

I have perused the joint compromise petition filed U/o 23 Rule 3 of CPC. According to Rule 3 of Order 23 of C.P.C., where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that a suit has been adjusted wholly or in part by any lawful agreement or compromise in writing, signed by the parties or where the defendant is satisfied the plaintiff in respect of the whole or any part of the subject matter of the suit, the court shall order such agreement, compromise or satisfaction to be recorded, and shall pass a decree in accordance therewith so far as it relates to the parties to the suit, whether or not the subject matter of the agreement, compromise or satisfaction is the same as the subject matter of the suit.

I have perused the joint compromise petition, in which the Plaintiff and defendants have signed and they have compromised the suit themselves. The terms and conditions of compromise petition have been read over and explained to the both parties and both parties have admitted the same as true and correct. Hence, there is no impediment to accept the compromise petition entered in to by the Plaintiff and defendants. On satisfaction, I have accepted the joint compromise petition. Hence, I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The compromise petition filed by both parties is hereby allowed.

The Suit is decreed in terms of the Compromise Petition. The compromise petition shall form part of the Decree.

Draw decree Accordingly.

(Advocate Conciliator)

(Judicial Member)