Cross-examination by the Accused side counsel Sri. AGD advocate :

I have lodged the case for recovery of money. I have lodged the case against Subramanya. Subramanya belongs to Chalya village. Now I heard that the Subramanya residing at Mysore. I do not know since from how many years accused is residing at Chalya. Now I came to know that accused residing at Kottigehalli, Mysore. It is correct to say that I do not know the address of accused with respect Mysore address. I do not know the occupation is done by accused. I do not know the affairs of accused and his family members. Accused is familiar with me due to relationship with my mother. It is not correct to say that he is not residing at Chalya. Witness voluntarily says that I do not know the correct address of accused at present. I do not know the properties of accused etc., I do not have the familiar with brothers of accused, but I know their names. I do not know the source of income of accused. I do not know with respect to expenditures of accused. On the last week of October 2023 accused requested to lend the money. Accused requested for 2 lakhs. I cannot say on which date accused requested to lend the money. I have not possessed any amount on that day. On November 2nd I lend the money to the accused. I cannot say after how many days I lend the money to accused after his request. I gave amount of Rs.500/- denomination for Rs.2 lakhs. I gave the amount from sale coconut and Ragi crops. I have the documents with regard to sale of coconut at the time. I cannot depose for what amount I sold coconut and Ragi crops. Accused told he made hand loan at his place in order to repay, he requested to lend the money. And witness voluntarily says that for business he requested to lend the money. I do not aware of what the business is to be done by accused. I do not aware of where the business is going to be run by accused. I gave the amount to the accused in my house, except accused and myself none others were present. I have lend the money to the accused by having faith on him. Accused assured to repay the amount within 3 months. After three months I have not demanded the amount from the accused. But I presented the cheque I have not intimated same to the accused. I cannot depose on which date accused has issued cheque . Accused has issued blank cheque by affixing his signature. While I lend the money that day itself accused issued cheque.

For further cross-examination time is granted.
