

ORDER

The accused has filed bail application under section 480 of B.N.S.S, to release their on bail. The alleged offence against the accused persons are punishable under section,22, 4(1A), 21 of MMDR Act.

2. The learned APP has filed objections to the said application, by stating that the complainant police have registered the case against the accused for the offence punishable under section 22, 4(1A), 21 of MMDR Act are non-bailable in nature. In the event, the accused released on bail, he may abscond without appearing the court and also hamper the prosecution witnesses and commit the similar type of offence. Hence, prayed to reject the application.

3. Heard arguments on both the sides. Perused the documents.

4. On basis of the above documents, objection the following points that arise for the determination.

1. Whether the application filed by the accused persons deserved to be allowed?
2. What order?
5. My answer to the above points as infra.

Point No.1: In the Affirmative,

Point No.2: As per final order for the following;

::REASONS::

6. Point No.1: The complainant police has lodged the case against the accused for the offences P/U/S 22, 4(1A), 21 of MMDR Act. It is the contention of the accused that he is from respectable family. The accused has also taken the contention that he is ready to abide by any conditions imposed by this court. Further, though the offence punishable under section 22, 4(1A), 21 of MMDR Act is non bailable in nature , neither punishable with capital nor with life imprisonment and the case is triable by this court. Charge sheet is also filed. However the apprehension of prosecution can be met by imposing stringent conditions. Hence, Point No.1 is answered in the Affirmative.

7. Point No.2: In view of the discussion for point No.1, this court proceeds to pass the following;
