

ORDERS ON IA NO. 4 AND 5

The appellants have filed IA No. 4 and 5 U/o 41 R 27 and Sec.151 of CPC to produce the documents and to lead further chief examination of PW-1.

In the accompanying of affidavit it is submitted that, during the trial of OS No. 164/2008 the appellant she could not able to furnish some of relevant documents. Recently the said documents are available to the appellant, which are necessary to prove their case. Hence, this application.

On the other hand, respondents have filed objection and denied application averments.

Perused and heard.

Admittedly the present appeal preferred by the appellants/plaintiffs aggrieved by the judgment and decree by passed in OS No. 164/2008 dated 13-12-2019 by the Ld. Addl. Civil Judge and JMFC, Hirekerur. Though, the respondents denied the application averments. But, for determination actual dispute between parties it is just and necessary to permit the appellants to furnish documents and get it marked as exhibits. Hence, I proceed to following;

ORDER

IA No. 4 and 5 filed by the appellant No. 6 U/o 41 R 27 and Sec.151 of CPC are hereby allowed on costs of Rs. 300/-.

The documents annexed with with application are taken on record.

PW-1 is recalled. For further chief examination by PW-1, by 22-04-2026.

sd/-

Sr. Civil Judge & JMFC,
Hirekerur.

