

CRL MISC 461/2022

Case called out. Both parties are absent.

Counsel for petitioner submitted that the petitioners are residing with respondent and not intended to proceed the case. Submissions are taken on record.

On perusal of order sheet, it reveals that, since 26-06-2023 till date the case is posted for petitioners evidence and the petitioners neither present before the court nor led the evidence. Hence, the prayer is rejected. The sufficient opportunity has been accorded by this court to the petitioners to lead the evidence albeit, the petitioners have not led the evidence. Hence, this court comes to conclusion that, petitioners have not intended to proceed the case. Hence, the petition is dismissed for default/ non prosecution.
