

Case called out before the Special Lok-Adalath.

The Jdr and Dhr appeared before the Court through virtually.

In view of joint memo filed by the both the parties and accepted the contents of the said joint memo, I proceed to pass the following

ORDER

The joint memo filed by the parties is accepted, in terms of the conditions invoked by the parties.

In view of joint memo, the case is closed.

Office has to draw accordingly.

(Advocate Conciliator)

(Conciliator Judicial)

Date: 18.07.2026

Both the learned counsels are present.

Complainant and accused are present.

As per the joint memo the accused and complainant compromised and the accused agreed to pay a sum of Rs. 1,00,000/- and agreed to pay the same within two months i.e., before 09.02.2025. If the accused fails to pay the said amount then she has to face legal consequences. Hence both the counsels prays to accept the joint memo.

The parties agreed for understanding that, if the accused in fault for a payment of the said amount, then the complainant can enforce the joint memo by invoking the provisions of Cr.P.C.

As per the judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka in W.P. No. 23519/2018 between Sri Somashekar Reddy V/s Smt G. S. Geeta. Dated: 07-02-2020.

In an another judgment decided by the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka in Crl. R.P. No. 90/2017 beween Sri M. Vijay Nayak and M/S Sri Sai Book Manufacturers.

If the accused in default of payment of said amount, then the complainant has liberty to restore the case at the original stage i.e.,prior to filing the joint memo, where it stands.

Further, the complainant has also given liberty to take steps against the accused on default of payment of instalments, by invoking the provisions of Under Section 431 or 421 of Cr. P.C.

The contents of the joint memo read over to both the parties and they are agreed to the terms and conditions of the said joint memo.

Both the Counsel prayed to refer the case before the Lok-Adalath. Hence, call on 14.12.2024.

III Addl. Sr. Civil Judge & JMFC,
Ranebennur.
