Cr.No. 322/2026,

U/s. 132 BNS and 20(b) (ii) (A), 29(1), 8 (c) NDPS Act. ... Complainant/Respondent

This petition coming before me for hearing today (04.08.2026) in the presence of M/s. M. Yasar Arafath Advocates for the petitioner and the learned Assistant Public Prosecutor for the respondent and upon hearing both sides and perusal of the case records, this court delivers the following.

ORDER

1) This petition has been filed under Section 480 of BNSS. seeking bail for the petitioner/accused who has been arrested by the H-1 Washermenpet police station, Chennai in Cr.No. 322/2026 for alleged commission of offences under section 132 BNS and 20(b) (ii) (A), 29(1), 8 (c) NDPS Act.

2) The accused has been remanded to judicial custody on 30.07.2026 and continues to remain so till date.

3) The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and that the case has been falsely foisted against the petitioner/accused. The learned counsel for the petitioner would further contend that the accused is law abiding citizen and the petitioner would co-operate in the investigation and would not tamper the witnesses and that she is ready to furnish solvent sureties for her future appearance and seek bail.

4) Upon notice, the learned APP submitted reply stating that investigation is pending. She has as many as 6 previous case. If she is released on bail, she may abscond and may involve in offences, tamper the evidence. Hence, the respondent strongly objected to release on bail.

5) Heard both sides. Case records perused. The petitioner is in custody from 30.07.2026 and the offence charged against the accused are u/s. 132 BNS and 20(b) (ii) (A), 29(1), 8 (c) NDPS Act. The accused is in custody for 6 days. The accused has as many as 6 previous criminal cases. However, except the alleged offence Under Section 132 BNS Act, other alleged offences are bailable in nature. By this time major part of investigation might have been completed. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and custody days of the accused, this court is inclined to allow this petition on following conditions.

- (i) The petitioner shall furnish two sureties for a sum of Rs.10,000/- apart from furnishing a personal bond for a like sum to the satisfaction of this court.
- ii) The petitioner shall not interfere the investigation or tamper the witnesses.
- iii) Upon release on bail, the petitioner shall appear before the Respondent police at 10.00 AM for one week from the date of his release and thereafter shall appear before this Court on summons.
