Case called at 5.P.M.
Complainant and counsel absent. No representation.

Order

It is observed that already sufficient opportunity is given but complainant and counsel have remained absent and not taken steps since from several dates of hearing. It seems that complainant is not interested to prosecute the case and already the matter is 5 years old and no cohesive steps are taken. Hence in view of the same complaint is hereby dismissed for non prosecution.

Accordingly office is directed to close the file.
