

ORDER ON IA NO.IX

The plaintiff has filed this application under order 7 rule 14 read with section 151 of Code of Civil Procedure seeking permission to permit the plaintiff to produce the documents as per list in the interest of justice and equity. The copies served on the other side. The sufficient opportunities given to file the objection from the defendants, but the defendants are not filed the objection to the IA No.IX. Further both plaintiff and defendant called out absent. Hence, hearing on IA No.IX from both sides taken as nil.

In the accompanying affidavit the plaintiff ha stated that he is going to produce the documents annexed as per list. The said documents are much relevant this case and also they are public documents as they are original certified copies of school certificates belonging to the plaintiff. The said documents issued by the concerned authorities. Due her busy work she is unable to produce the above said documents within the time. Hence she prayed to allow the accompanying application and permit the plaintiff to produce the list of documents. The copies served on the other side. The defendants are not filed the objections to the IA No.IX. Even providing sufficient opportunities to them. In my view, the reason stated in the accompanying application is believable one. Further the plaintiff filing this accompanying application he furnished the list of three documents along with this application. Further the said documents are three school certificates issued by the Head Master of Government Higher Primary School, Bevinahalli in the name of plaintiffs No.1, 3 and defendant No.1. The determinations of the rights and liabilities of the parties on merits. This application is allowed on cost no harm or loss would be caused to the other side. If not allowed it will be cause multiplicity of proceedings between the parties. In the interest of justice and equity, I proceed to pass the following;
