

Case called out before lok adalath.

The plaintiff and defendants and their counsels are present and filed a joint memo and their adhara cards for identification. It is the say of the parties that matter is duly settled between the parties. The contents of the joint memo have been read over to the parties in Kannada Language. Both have understood the same and also admitted their signature on the joint memo.

Considering the joint memo filed by the both the parties. I am of the opinion that, the joint memo is not entered into under duress or pressure. It has been entered into on their volition. There is no any legal prohibition for this compromise. The joint memo is to be accepted in terms of joint memo. Accordingly, I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The joint memo filed by both the parties is hereby accepted.

Office is hereby directed to draw decree accordingly as per joint memo.

Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator