

CS 806/25
Meenu Vs. Leelawati and ors

13.08.2026

Present: Sh. Rajender Singh and Sh. Premchand, Ld.
Counsels for the Plaintiff with Plaintiff in person.

An application under Order 1 Rule 10 CPC filed on behalf of plaintiff for impleading DUSIB as necessary and effective party in the present case.

Request is made for waiver of notice u/s 80 (2) CPC as the relief of the plaintiff is urgent.

Plaintiff submits that the notice has to be waived as he was not aware that notice has to be served, and the property is an ancestral property. This is not the ground for waiver of the notice. It is noted that not only DUSIB is a necessary party as the suit property was allotted to Lt. Sh. Tukky Ram by DDA/ Slum and JJ Cell now DUSIB, but also prior notice u/s 80 (2) CPC is required to be issued which is not done by the plaintiff in this case.

In such view of the matter, the plaintiff has to come before this Court without compliance of impleading necessary party and consequent mandatory notice and the suit is hereby held pre-mature, which is hence, returned to the plaintiff which he may file afresh after completion of necessary legal formalities.

Accordingly, present suit is returned.

File be consigned to record room, after due compliance.
