The learned APP filed application U/Sec. 242 (3) of Cr. P.C. to permit the prosecution to produce certificate of registration of marriage. In the application it was stated that, at the time of evidence of CW1, the said document was not produced as they were not able to receive the said document from the concerned office. Hence prayed before the court to allow the application.

In the objection counsel for accused submitted that, the document is fabricated and concocted one. Hence prayed to reject the application. The genuinity and admissibility of the document is the matter of trial, while deciding the case on merits, these aspect of the matter as contended by the counsel for accused can be considered. Therefore in the opinion of court the application filed by prosecution deserves to be allowed. Hence I proceed to pass the following order.

ORDER

The application filed by the prosecution U/Sec 242 of Cr. PC. Is here by allowed.
