

ORDER ON JOINT MEMO

The complainant, accused and their respective counsels are present and are filed joint compromise memo wherein contended that they have amicably settled their dispute in respect of cheque of Rs.3,00,000/-. As per the terms of compromise the accused has paid Rs.1,10,000/- and further agreed by the complainant that, there is no any claim in future.

The contents of the joint memo are hereby read over and explained to the parties to the petition, they have agreed that the contents of the joint memo are read over and they have signed to the joint memo with their free will and there is no any force. Hence, the joint petition filed by the parties to the petitioner are not oppose to the law. Hence, it is just and necessary to allow the memo.

Joint memo filed by the parties to the petition is hereby accepted and thereby the petition disposed off as compromise.

Pr1.Civil Judge & JMFC
Aland