

OS.No.30/2026

Case called out before Lok adalat.

The plaintiff No-3 is present.

The plaintiff No-1 and 2 are minors and plaintiff No-3 is the mother and next friend of the minor plaintiff No-1 and 2.

The defendant No-1 to 3 are present.

Sri.MSP advocate filed vakalat for the defendant No-1 to 3.

The plaintiffs and the defendants have filed compromise petition U/o 23 Rule 3 of CPC.

On enquiry the defendants have submitted that, they have given up their rights in the suit property to the plaintiffs and they have already received Rs.2,00,000/- from the plaintiff No-3.

The plaintiff No-1 and 2 are minors. The advocate for the plaintiffs filed application under order 32 rule 7 of CPC with certificate of the advocate.

On further enquiry both the parties have agreed to the terms of the compromise petition.

Hence for acceptance of the compromise petition.

Senior Civil Judge & JMFC
Afzalpur.

Order on compromise petition

U/o 23 rule 3 of CPC.

Plaintiff No-3 and the defendant No-1 to 3 are present. Their respective counsels are also present.

The minor plaintiff No-1 and 2 are also present.

The parties have jointly filed the compromise petition U/O 23 rule 3 of CPC, stating that the matter has been resolved amicably and accordingly they have entered in to compromise in view of the terms and conditions of the compromise petition.

The mother/next friend of the minor plaintiff No-1 and 2 has filed an affidavit stating that, the compromise is in the interest of minor plaintiff No-1 and 2.

The advocate for the plaintiffs filed certificate stating that, the compromise is in the interest of minor plaintiff No-1 and 2.

The contents of the compromise petition are read and explained before the both parties in Kannada language which is known to them. Both of them are agreed for the same.

Further they stated that there is no any force or coercion for this compromise and they have entered with full consent.

Hence at this juncture considering the compromise petition filed by the parties their free consent for the same and interest of the minor plaintiff No-1 and 2 if the same is accepted there will be no such loss or injury would be caused to any of the parties. Hence in view of the above I proceed to pass following.....

ORDER

The compromise petition filed U/o 23 rule 3 of CPC is hereby accepted.

In view of the compromise petition the suit is disposed in terms of the compromise petition.

The compromise petition shall be treated as part and parcel of the decree.

Office is hereby directed to draw decree in terms of compromise petition.

Senior Civil Judge & JMFC
Afzalpur.