Smt. MVL Adv. filed Vakalat for accused and also filed bail petition U/s.436 of CrPC. For the reasons stated in the bail application accused person prayed for grant of bail.

Heard arguments on bail petition by the advocate for the accused. Perused the bail application and the entire case records.

The offences punishable U/s 138 of NI Act., alleged against the accused is bailable in nature and triable by this court. The accused person is ready to furnish sufficient surety and abide the condition of the court. Even by taking into consideration the contention of bail petition, I am of the opinion that, accused has made out a bonafide grounds for grant of bail. Therefore, the bail petition deserved to be allowed. Hence, I pass the following;
