

Heard Sri B.B advocate on IA.No.1. Perused the materials available on record. A perusal of RTC and registered sale deed produced by the plaintiff. At this stage it discloses that plaintiff is in possession of suit land. Plaintiff alleged that defendants are trying to disposes the plaintiff from suit property. At this stage I am of the opinion that plaintiff has made out a prima-facie case for grant of ad-interim exparte temporary injunction order to restrain the defendants or any persons claiming through them from causing interference in the peaceful possession and enjoyment of the plaintiff over the suit property. If the notice of I.A.No.1 is ordered to be issued then the very object of filing the suit will be defeated by delay in service of the notice. Hence, I am satisfied with the object of granting exparte temporary injunction as prayed for in I.A.No.1 by the plaintiff. Accordingly, I proceed to pass the following;

ORDER

Defendants or any persons claiming through them are hereby restrained by an order of ad-interim ex-parte Temporary Injunction order from causing interference in the peaceful possession and enjoyment of the plaintiff over the suit property.

This TI shall be in force till next date.

Plaintiff is directed to comply the mandatory provisions of order 39 Rule 3(a) of CPC.

If plaintiff comply the order, Issue notice of I.A.No.1 and suit summons to defendants.

Office is directed not to Issue certified copy of this order to the plaintiff if plaintiff did not comply the order.

Call on 9/8.
