

Case advanced on board.

Accused present. Sri B.B advocate filed vakalath and bail application under section 436 of Cr.P.C for accused. Learned counsel appearing for the accused submitted that, alleged offence against the accused is bailable in nature and accused is ready to furnish the surety to the satisfaction of the court. On these grounds learned counsel appearing for the accused sought to allow the application. Perused the records. It discloses that alleged offence against the accused is 279, 304(A) of IPC R/w 187 of IMV Act, which are bailable in nature. Accused is ready to furnish the surety to the satisfaction of the court. Hence, I am of the opinion that accused is entitled to bail. Accordingly, I proceed to pass the following-
