

Case called before the Lok Adalath.

Counsel for plaintiff has filed memo.

Heard learned counsel for the plaintiff on memo and perused the contents of it.

On perusal of the contents of memo it goes to show that the parties have settled their dispute out of court and the defendant has paid entire loan amount. Hence, the plaintiff's Bank does not want to proceed with the case and ultimately prays for dismissal of the suit as not pressed. In view of settlement of claim, plaintiff sought for refund of court fee.

As the plaintiff Bank has satisfied with the claim made in the suit. Hence, the suit of the plaintiff is hereby disposed of interms of memo.

Office is hereby directed to refund the court fee as per law.
