Crime No305/2026, u/s.4(1)(A) TNP Act.

..... Respondent/Complainant

This petition has come up on 23.06.2026 for final hearing before me in the presence of Thiru. N. Bhuvaneshkumar, the Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the Learned Assistant Public Prosecutor appearing for the Respondent and upon perusal of the records, this court delivers the following.

ORDER

This is an application filed by the petitioners to enlarge them on bail under Section 480 of BNSS, 2023.

2. The Gist of the Petitioner:

The petitioners submit that the respondent police had registered the above case for the alleged offences u/s.4(1)(A) TNP Act. The Petitioners were arrested on 14.06.2026 and they are in judicial custody for the past 10 days. The petitioners are innocent persons, they are no way connected with the offences. Further, they stated that a false case has been foisted against them. If they are released on bail, they will neither abscond nor tamper the witnesses. Further, they stated that they are the only bread winner of their family and they are ready to furnish sufficient sureties for the satisfaction of the court and they prayed that they may be enlarged on bail.

3. Objection filed by the prosecution :

The Assistant Public Prosecutor and Prosecution submitted that the investigation is still pending. The petitioners are habitual offenders. Both the petitioners having several previous cases in various police stations. If the petitioners are released on bail, they may abscond and indulge in same kind of offences. Hence, the prosecution side strongly opposed for granting bail to the petitioners.

3. Both side Heard. On perusal of records, it is found that the investigation is still pending. The petitioners are habitual offenders who are having several previous cases and would make it highly probable that they would get absconded or may indulge in doing the same kind of offences. Further, they may tamper the witnesses and to secure their presence, this court is not inclined to grant bail.

4. Accordingly, this petition is dismissed in the interest of justice.

Directly dictated by me to the Steno-Typist, typed by him, corrected by me and pronounced by me in the open court on the 23rd day of June 2026.

Judicial Magistrate,
Avinashi.
