

Order below Exh.1.

1. Both the Parties and Ld. Advocate for the plaintiff are present before this court. Both the parties have submitted consent terms/consent decree vide Exh.10. Both the parties submitted that both the parties have settled the matter according to consent terms/decreed, therefore pray to pass decree in accordance with the consent terms. I have gone through the consent terms submitted by both the parties, both the parties have admitted the fact that they have read the consent terms and agree to it. They also admitted that they have put their signatures/thumb impression on the consent terms. Ld. Advocate for plaintiff identified their signatures. After submission by both the parties as well as Ld. Advocates, it transpires that the settlement arrived between the parties according to consent terms is according to their free will, and abide by it and they have settled the matter according to consent terms hence, looking to the provision of O.23 of C.P.C. and in view of facts narrated in consent terms, and considering the submission made by the parties, I pass the following order in the interest of justice.

Order

- The suit of the plaintiff is hereby ordered to be decreed according to consent terms vide Exh.10.
- No order as to costs.
- Decree be drawn according to consent terms.

Signed and pronounced in Lok-adalat i.e.on this 16th day of February, 2019.
