

OS No. 375/2018

Case again called out.

Plaintiff No. 1 and 2 and their counsel present.

Defendant No.2 and her counsel present.

Both parties have filed compromise petition along with copies of Aadhar cards of the parties.

Both counsels present and identified the parties.

On enquiry parties admit the terms of the compromise to be true and correct. The compromise arrived between the parties seems free, fair and voluntary. Hence, this court proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The compromise petition is accepted.

The parties to the suit are permitted to compromise the suit.

Accordingly the suit of the plaintiff is decreed in terms of the compromise petition.

Office is directed to draw decree as per the compromise petition.

The compromise petition is part and parcel of the decree.

Both parties are directed to bear their own cost.
