8) POINT NO.1: The learned counsel for the petitioner during argument reiterated the contents of petition and relied upon the documents and prayed to allow the petition.

9) Upon having heard so, on perusal of the records, the petitioner's father has examined as P.W.1 and he has reiterated the contents of the petition in his affidavit and got 02 documents marked. Ex.P.1 is the non-availability certificate issued by the Tahasildar Registrar, Tahasildar, Kanakagiri i.e., respondent dated 30-05-2026 and Ex.P-2 is the School acknowledgment letter issued by Head Master of Sri. Sharanegouda Bheemanagouda Police

Ex.P.1 and 2 shows the birth date is not entered in the respondent's office. To deny the contents of affidavit of P.W.1, the respondents have not appeared. Further there are no contrary evidence to disprove the evidence given by PW.1 or to disbelieve his case.

If respondent is ordered to register date of birth of the petitioner, he will not be put to loss as it binds the parties only.
