

Cr1.A. 46/2024

This matter posted to inquiry on application to condonation of delay on 03.06.2024.

After that, the court granted 23 adjournments to the Appellant to lead evidence on application to condonation of delay.

Even after laps of more than 2 years, the appellant not produce the evidence on application.

Today in the morning Session, No representation.

Again matter called at 12.00 p.m., no representation.

I have perused the affidavit filed in support of application. There is no reasons stated in the affidavit to condone the delay.

No grounds made to condone the delay based on affidavit without inquiry on application.

Hence appeal dismissed for non-prosecution.
