JUDGMENT

This case emanates from the complaint is filed by the complainant alleging that, the accused has committed the offence punishable Under Section-138 of Negotiable Instruments Act.

2. Initially, the complaint presented before 1st Addl. Civil Judge and JMFC, Malavalli and registered as CC No.1294/2022. In view of order No.16/2025 of Hon'ble Prl. Senior Civil Judge and CJM, Mandya dated 24.04.2025, the case has been transferred before this court and given new CC number as 149/2025.

3. The brief facts of the case of the complainant are as follows:-

The complainant submitted that, the accused known to him. The accused approached the complainant for financial assistance of Rs.4,00,000/- to meet his urgent requirements and for his legal necessity i.e., discharge some hand loans and for household expenses. The complainant agreed the same and gave Rs.4,00,000/- to the accused on 13.02.2022 . The accused has agreed to repay the same within a month from the date of borrowed. After lapse of a month, the complainant had approached the accused and requested to repay the loan amount. At that time, the accused had issued the cheque bearing No.765712 dated 15.03.2022 for Rs.4,00,000/- drawn on Canara Bank, Malavalli Branch, Mandya District in favour of complainant.

4. The complainant further submitted that, he had presented the said cheque before his banker Canara Bank, Malavalli Branch, Malavali Taluk for encashment. But, the said cheque was returned with endorsement "funds insufficient" dated 17.03.2022. Thereafter, the complainant approached the accused and given intimation regarding dishonored of the cheque. The accused does not response to the request of complainant. The complainant got issued the legal notice to the accused on 07.04.2022 by RPAD. The said legal notice not served upon the accused. The notice issued to the working address of accused duly served upon the accused on 11.04.2022. But, the accused did not make any attempt to discharge the amount due under the cheque and not give any reply to the notice.

Hence filed complaint.

5. On presentation of the complaint this court has taken cognizance of the offence u/Sec.138 of N.I. Act. The pursuance of service of summons the accused has put his appearance before this court and filed bail application u/Sec.436 of Cr.P.C. and the same was allowed and the accused was released on bail.

6. The copies of the prosecution paper was forward to the accused as per Sec.207 of Cr.P.C. The plea was recorded u/Sec.251 of Cr.P.C. The accusation was read over to the accused, to which he pleaded not guilty and claimed to be tried.

7. To substantiate his contentions, the complainant has examined himself as PW1 and got marked ExP1 to 7. After the death of complainant, his Legal heir namely Sri. Chiranjeevi examined himself as PW2. The side of the complainant was closed. The statement of the accused u/Sec.313 of Cr.P.C. has been recorded. The accused failed to step into the witness box.

8. Heard the arguments from the learned counsel appeared on behalf of the complainant.

9. In view of the materials placed before this court the points arise for consideration of this court are as follows;

POINTS

- 1. Whether the Complainant proves beyond all shadow of doubt that, the accused has committed the offence punishable u/Sec.138 of Negotiable Instruments Act?
- 2. What Order?

10. The findings of this court to the above points are as under:-

Point No.1: In the Affirmative,

Point No.2: As per the final order for the following:

REASONS

11. Point No.1:- This court has carefully perused the Section 138 N.I. Act and the law declared by the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka in the decision reported in ILR 2008 Karnataka 4629 between Shivamurthy V/s Amruthraju & Another decision, rendered by Hon'ble Apex Court reported in AIR 2008 Supreme Court 1325 between

Krishna Janardhan Bhat V/s Dattatreya

G.Heggade. A careful reading of Sec.138 of N.I Act and the ratio laid down in aforesaid decisions makes it clear that the Sec.138 of N.I. Act has three ingredients, which are as follows:

- 1. That there is legally enforceable debt.
- 2. That the cheque was drawn for the account of Bank for discharge in whole or in part of any debt or other liability which pre-supposes a legally enforceable debt.
- 3. That the cheque so issued had been returned due to Insufficiency of funds.

12. Keeping in view the ingredients of Sec.138 of N.I. Act now, this court feel that it is correct to reproduce the Sec.139 and 118 of N.I. Act here itself.

Sec.139 of N.I. Act reads as follows:-

Presumption in favour of holder:- It shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved that, the holder of a cheque received the cheque of the nature referred to in Sec.138 for the discharge in whole or in part, or any debt or other liability.

The Sec.118(a) of N.I. Act reads as Follows:-

Presumption as to Negotiable Instruments:- until the contrary is proved, the following presumption shall be made.

a) Of Consideration:- That every Negotiable Instruments was made or drawn for consideration and that every such instrument, when it has been accepted, endorsed, negotiated or transferred, was accepted, endorsed, negotiated or transferred for consideration.

13. Keeping in view the ingredients of Sec.138 and the provision of Sec.139 and 118(a) of N.I. Act, now this court has proceed to discuss the documents of this case. This court of the opinion that, this court has need not report the entire case of the complainant here also, since this court have already narrated the same at the inception of this judgment.

14. It must be noted that, to substantiate his contentions the complainant has examined himself as PW1 and got marked 7 documents as per ExP1 to 7. After the death of complainant, his Legal heir namely Sri. Chiranjeevi examined himself as PW2. In view of this court is correct to discuss about the documentary evidence here itself for the convenient sake.

15. The ExP1 is the cheque bearing No.765712 dated 15.03.2022 for Rs.4,00,000/- drawn on Canara Bank, Malavalli Branch, Mandya District. According to complainant the ExP1(a) is the signature of accused herein. A perusal of the original complaint and original cheque makes it clear that they buttress the stand taken by the complainant herein.

16. ExP2 is the endorsement issued by the Banker and ExP3 is the office copy of legal notice. ExP2 shows that, the complainant had presented the aforesaid cheque bearing No.765712 for en-cashment, before Canara Bank, Malavalli Branch, Malavalli Taluk, but the same was returned unpaid on 17.03.2022 with remarks “Funds insufficient”.

17. It must be noted that, as per clause (b) of proviso of Sec.138 of N.I Act the complainant was required to make a demand for payment of said amount within 30 days from the date of receipt of cheque as unpaid. The Exp3 show that, the complainant made a demand, in writing, calling upon the accused to make repayment of the said loan amount by issuing notice dated 07.04.2022 which is within 30 days from the date of receipt of cheque as unpaid. The Exp6 is the postal acknowledgment show that, the legal notice issued by the complainant which is duly served upon the accused on 07.04.2022. As per clause(c) of proviso to Sec.138 of N.I. Act the accused was entitled to have 15 days time to make the repayment of aforesaid loan amount. Thus, the complainant had to wait till 22.04.2022. Thus, the cause of action for this complaint has arisen on 23.04.2022. Further, as per Sec.142(b) of N.I. Act the complaint is to be filed within 30 days from the date on which the cause of action arises. Therefore, complainant had to file this complaint on or after 24.04.2022 and on or before 25.05.2022. This case has been filed on 12.05.2022 and hence, the complaint is well within time. Thus, the complainant has fulfilled all the components. Which were required for the completion of the offense u/Sec.138 of N.I. Act.

18. In the decision of Hon'ble Appellant court in AIR 2010 SC 1898 between Rangappa V/s Mohan, the Hon'ble Apex Court has held that once the execution of Negotiable Instruments is either proved or admitted, then, the court shall draw the presumption to the effect that, the said Negotiable Instruments has been drawn for valid consideration and the legally recoverable debt was existence.

19. Keeping in view this position of law, now, this court has proceed to discuss that, whether the cheque in question is belonged to the accused and whether the signature of the accused herein is available in the cheque in question?

20. It must be noted that, an answer lies to this question in the deposition of PW1 and 2. It is well settled that, suggestion is the reflection of the case of the opponent. In this case, the accused has failed to cross-examine the PW1 and 2. It is show that, the accused has admitted his signature on ExP1.

21. Once this court concludes that, the execution of the cheque in question is proved, then, this court shall draw a presumption available u/Sec.139 of N.I. Act. In other words, this court shall draw a presumption that, the cheque in question has been drawn towards the discharge of legally enforceable debt and it is drawn for valid consideration. However, it is relevant to mention that, the position very clear that, presumption available u/Sec.139 of N.I. Act is not conclusive proof, but, the said presumption is rebut-able one. Therefore, in view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances and position of law, the accused has to dispel or rebut the presumption which is available and favourable to complainant herein. With this perception, now this court has proceed to discuss the evidence available on record.

22. It must be noted that, the complainant has only produced 7 documents and they are marked as ExP1 to 7. This court has already discussed about ExP1 to 6 in the preceding paragraphs of this judgment. ExP7 is the unserved postal cover.

23. It must be noted that, the complainant has examined himself as PW1. The PW1 has filed his affidavit u/Sec.145 of NI Act, containing his examination-in-chief, wherein he has reiterated the entire complaint averments. After the death of complainant, his Legal heir namely Sri. Chiranjeevi examined himself as PW2 by filing affidavit evidence in lieu of his examination-in-chief and reiterated the complaint averments. However, this court cannot draw any conclusion without perusing the cross-examination of PW1 and 2.

24. In order to rebut the case of the complainant, the accused has failed to step into the witness box to adduce his defense evidence and failed to cross-examine the PW1 and 2.

25. In order to prove his defense, the accused has not produced any documents. The complainant has got issued the legal notice to the accused calling upon him to pay the cheque amount. The said notice duly served upon the accused. The accused not reply the same. Hence, this court has draw the adverse inference against the accused under Section 114 of The Indian Evidence Act. There is no dispute about cheque belong to the accused and his signature in the cheque also not disputed. The accused has failed to rebut the case of the complainant.

26. This court has relied upon one decision regarding who has to prove the elements of consideration for issuing the cheque, that, AIR 2001 SC 2895 between K.N.Beema V/s Muniyappa and Another.

“The burden to prove the consideration for the cheque lies on the accused. If not rebutted, the presumption is that, the cheque was issued for consideration. It is for the accused to prove that, the cheques were not issued towards a debt or liability. He has to lead credible evidence for rebuttal of this presumption. Mere denied of averements will not suffice to shift this burden on to the complainant”.

27. In view of above discussion the complainant succeeded to prove that, the accused give the cheque in favour of the complainant for the liability of legal recoverable debt. The accused has failed to rebutted to presumption u/Sec.139 of N.I. Act. Hence this court come to the conclusion that, the materials available on records are sufficient to conclude that, the accused had committed the offense punishable u/Sec.138 of N.I. Act. Therefore this court come to the conclusion that, the accused is liable to pay the cheque amount of Rs.4,00,000/- and the state expenses of Rs.5,000/- and compensation of Rs.2,00,000/-. The complainant has entitled to receive the compensation of Rs.6,00,000/-. Hence this court has answer the Point No.1 in the affirmative.

28. POINT NO.2: In view of findings of Point No.1, this court has proceed to pass the following;

ORDER

By exercising powers conferred under Section-255(2) of Cr.P.C., the accused is hereby convicted for the offence punishable under Section-138 of Negotiable Instruments Act.

The accused is sentenced to pay fine of Rs.6,05,000/- in default of payment of fine amount, the accused shall undergo simple imprisonment for the period of six months.

Out of the fine amount of Rs.6,00,000/- shall pay to the complainant as compensation under Section 357(1)(b) of Cr.P.C. and the remaining amount of Rs.5,000/- is to be deposited to the State.

The bail bond of the accused and his surety stand canceled.

Office is directed to supply the free copy of this judgment to the accused for therein as per Sec.363 of Cr.P.C.
