

Case called before Lok-Adalath. Both the parties and their respective counsels are present and filed joint memo submitting that the both petitioner and respondent are compromised and settled before the mediation as per the mediation report at present the petitioner is living happily with respondent. Hence, a joint compromise memo is satisfied and accepted and the case is hereby closed as compromised.