

LOK ADALATH ORDER SHEET

IN THE COURT OF THE PRL. CIVIL JUDGE & JMFC., MALAVALLI

OS NO. 493/2025

Plaintiff/s:- Lingegowda and others

And

Defendant/s:- Gowramma and others

This case is referred to Lok-Adalath.

This case taken up before the Lok-Adalath held today i.e., National Lok-Adalath drive on 11.07.2026

This is a suit for Declaration and permanent injunction.

Plaintiffs, Defendants and their counsel are present.

After due deliberations held among the parties with the interventions of Conciliators and their respective Advocates, the parties have come for settlement/compromise.

In view of the settlement arrived among the parties, this case is disposed of as per the terms of memo and separate order as directed by conciliator.

The parties are directed to bear their own costs. Draw Lok-Adalath Award accordingly.

Non Judicial Conciliator

Judicial Conciliator

Plaintiffs and defendants and their counsel are present and filed compromise petition U/o 23 rule 3 of CPC stating that the plaintiffs and defendant have arrived compromise as per the terms of compromise petition. Perused the contents of the compromise petition, pleadings of the parties and documents produced in the suit.

The terms of the compromise petition are read over to the plaintiffs and defendants, they admitted the same. The terms of compromise petition are in accordance with law. In the result, I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

The compromise petition filed by the plaintiffs and defendants is hereby allowed.

Draw decree as per the terms of compromise petition.

Accordingly, the matter is disposed-Off.

Considered before Lok-adalath
Case is closed as settled.

Spl. Judicial Magistrate
Pri. Civil Judge & JMFC.,
Malavalli