

BEFORE LOK-ADALATH

O.S. No. 7/2025

The case was called out before the Lokadalath. Plaintiff and Defendants No. 1 to 4 are present along with their respective learned counsel and filed a joint memo stating that the parties have settled the matter in terms of the joint memo and hence the suit may be decreed in terms of the joint memo. The plaintiff and defendants No.1 to 4 produced their original Aadhaar cards along with their copies. L/c for the plaintiff filed a memo along with genealogy affidavit and RTC pertaining to Survey No. 38 of Amruthi Village. The joint memo is duly signed by the plaintiff and defendants No.1 to 4 as well as their respective learned counsel. The plaintiff and defendants No.1 to 4 stated that they have understood the contents of the joint memo and that, they have voluntarily arrived at the terms of the joint memo and that there is no compulsion on them from any body to arrive at such a settlement. The documents at Ex.P. 1 to 5 show that the suit schedule item No.1 to 4 stand in the name of defendant No.1 Puttamma W/o Late Javaraiah. The suit schedule item No. 5 is assessed to tax in the name of Javaraiah S/o Huthaiah. The genealogy affidavit produced by the parties coupled with the Aadhaar cards show that Puttamma is the wife of Javaraiah. Thus, prima facie the suit schedule properties appear to be the joint family properties of the parties to the suit. The settlement appears to be lawful and hence there shall not be any impediment to record the settlement. Hence the joint memo is taken on record and proceeded to pass the following ORDER The suit is decreed in terms of the joint memo. The office shall draw preliminary decree in terms of the joint memo. The joint memo shall form part of the preliminary decree. The office shall register FDP based on the preliminary decree.
