IO SI Sumit Sehrawat is present.

A) BRIEF

By way of the present application filed under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, the applicant/accused seeks interim bail in FIR No. 152/2026, Police Station Special Cell, Lodhi Colony.

B) SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE APPLICANT

1. Learned counsel submits that the applicant seeks interim bail as his wife is in an advanced stage of pregnancy and is expected to deliver shortly, and his presence is required to take care of her during such critical period.
2. Learned counsel further submits that the applicant has been in judicial custody since 29.06.2026 and has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is contended that the applicant was arrested primarily on the basis of the disclosure statement of a co-accused and there is no independent material connecting him with the alleged offences. It is further submitted that the investigation qua the applicant is substantially complete; the alleged electronic devices have already been seized; there is no likelihood of tampering with evidence; and the applicant has deep roots in society with no criminal antecedents.

C) SUBMISSIONS ON BEHALF OF THE STATE

Per contra, learned Addl. PP for the State opposes the application, submitting that the applicant is actively involved in the alleged offence and that incriminating digital evidence, including laptop, mobile phone and source code relating to the website, has been recovered from his possession. It is submitted that the investigation is at a crucial stage and release of the applicant may prejudice the investigation and influence co-accused or witnesses.

D) OBSERVATIONS

1. Heard. Perused.
2. During the course of arguments, it was submitted by Ld. Counsel for accused that accused has a small child and his wife is in 7th month of pregnancy, hence, if not regular, interim bail be granted.
3. Without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this Court is of the view that the applicant has sought only a short period of interim bail on humanitarian grounds owing to the advanced pregnancy of his wife. The ends of justice would be adequately served by granting interim bail for a limited period subject to appropriate conditions.

E) FINAL ORDER

1. Accordingly, applicant/accused is admitted to interim bail for a period of three weeks from the date of release, upon furnishing a personal bond of ₹25,000 with one surety of like amount to the satisfaction of Ld. Trial Court, subject to the following conditions:
