

Crl.Misc.313/2019

The petitioner is filed petition u/Sec.13(2) of Registration of Births and Deaths Act against the respondent.

Case called out. No representation by the petitioner and his counsel, again case called out at 12.00 pm. No representation, again case called out at 1.30 pm. No representation, again case called out at 2.00 pm. No representation, again case called out at 3.30 pm. No representation, again case called out 5.00 pm. No representation. Kept by at 5.30 pm again case called out No representation by petitioner and his counsel.

Since from 2019 the case is pending.

The matter was posted for petitioner evidence on 30.03.2020. Since then it is seen that the petitioner and his counsel has not appeared and fails to lead their evidence against the respondent.

Inspite of given sufficient opportunity of about 3 years as finally as last chance, the petitioner has not come forward to lead evidence against the respondent.

The non appearance of the petitioner shows that, he is not interested to proceed on with the matter.

Hence the petition filed by the petitioner is dismissed for non prosecution.

V ACJ & JMFC, Ballari.