

CS (Comm) No.639/2025
Paradise Chemicals Vs. M/s Nandi Irrigation Systems

25.05.2026

Present: Shri Pankaj Sharma, Ld. Counsel for plaintiff with Proprietor of the plaintiff firm

None for defendant who is already proceeded ex-parte vide order dated 25.02.2026.

Affidavit in evidence of Shri Himanshu Jain, Proprietor of plaintiff firm filed today.

Statement of PW-1 recorded and discharged. Counsel for plaintiff submits that he does not want to lead any other evidence and P.E may be closed. In view of the submissions, ex-parte P.E is closed.

Perusal of the record shows that an envelope through speed post has been received from defendant company on 28.04.2026. The same is opened. The contents of the envelope states that an operational creditors of the defendant company has filed an insolvency resolution process against the defendant company before the National Company Law Tribunal and the National Law Company Tribunal vide its order dated 18.09.2024 appointed an Interim Resolution Professional and also declared Moratorium for prohibiting various actions.

The facts of the same have been apprised to Ld. Counsel for the plaintiff.

Ld. Counsel for plaintiff states that he will look into it.

Put up for consideration on 23.07.2026.

PRITAM SINGH
District Judge
Commercial Court-01
Shahdara Distt, KKD, Delhi
25.05.2026