VII AJMFC, VJA

11.07.2026:

Accused is present along with concerned RPF Police before National Lok Adalath (Physical/Hybrid mode). Copies of case documents are furnished to Accused as required U/Sec.230 of BNSS and explained about the pros and cons of the plea bargain Petition and punishment to be imposed for the offence punishable U/Sec.145(b) of Railways Act punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months and with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees. This Court has recorded that accused made application voluntarily and a satisfactory disposition of the case has been worked out and report thereof has been prepared by the Presiding Officer and proceeded further in accordance with Section 290 of BNSS. Heard both sides.

In the result, the Accused is FOUND GUILTY under Section 293 of BNSS for the offence punishable under Section 145(b) of Railways Act. It appears that accused unmindful of consequences resorted to the end of committing this offence. It is his first mistake.
Therefore, considering the facts and circumstances of this case, imposing fine of Rs.100/- would appear to be adequate and could meet the ends of Justice in this case.

Accused is sentenced to pay a fine of Rs.100/- (Rupees One Hundred only) in default to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of Ten (10) days for the offence punishable under section 145(b) of Railways Act.
