[Rep. By Public Prosecutor]

ORDERS ON BAIL PETITION FILED U/SEC.482 OF BHARATHIYA NAGARIKA SURAKSHA SANITHA ACT, 2023

This is a petition U/Sec.482 of Bharathiya Nagarika Suraksha Sanitha, 2023 filed by the petitioner and sought for release him on bail in the event of his arrest by the respondent police in their police station Crime No.49/2026 for the offences punishable U/Sec. 74, 115(2), 117(2), 352, 351(2) of BNS, 2023.

2. Nutshell of the petition are as under:

The learned counsel for the petitioner in the petition has alleged that the respondent police have registered the false case against the Petitioner in their police station Crime No. 49/2026 for the offences punishable U/Sec. 74, 115(2), 117(2), 352, 351(2) of BNS, 2023 based on the false complaint which filed by one Gagana Deepika M.S W/o Sadashivaiah, Aged about 39 years, Resident of No.1547, High Tension double road, Vijayanagara, 2nd stage, Mysuru stating that she is residing in the above said address along with her family members. Since 7-8 months running Karnataka One office in front of her house after obtaining permission and license from the DC and the ECDC office and the said office running very well since two months the customers are very less so she has enquired the customers and came to know that other Karnataka One office is running infront of Sub-registrar office and came to know that one Ravi is running the said office in the name of Prameela without obtaining license from anybody illegally. Thereby, she has informed the said aspects orally to the ECDC office and DC office on 23.03.2026 at 7.30 p.m. had been to the said office and asked the Ravi about running of the office without obtaining the license for which the said Ravi abused her in filthy words and assaulted in his hands and dragged her with an intention to outrage her modesty and her left hand finger was fractured and she was shouting and pushed her from the office and went to Vistara hospital and took the treatment and doctor advised about the fracture of left hand finger that is the reason why delay has been caused in lodging the complaint. So, based on the said complaint case was came to be registered by the respondent police in their police station crime No.49/2026 for the offences punishable U/Sec. 74, 115(2), 117(2), 352, 351(2) of BNS, 2023 and the Petitioner is apprehending in the hands of the Respondent Police and filed instant petition for the following :

::GROUNDS ::

1. The Petitioner is innocent and law-abiding citizen and he has not at all committed the offences which alleged against him.
2. The petitioner is hails from respectable family but false case has been filed against the Petitioner only with the intention to harass the petitioner.
3. The petitioner is not at all committed the offences as alleged in the complaint and the offences which alleged though non-bailable but same are not punishable either with life or death.
4. The petitioner is the permanent resident of the address as mentioned in the cause title and ready to abide by the conditions which may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish the surety to the satisfaction of the court and prays for allow the petition.

3. In response to the notice, the learned P.P appeared and filed her objections stating that, the complainant in the complaint has clearly stated that on 25.03.2026 at 2.00 p.m. lodged the complaint stating that she is running the Karnataka one office after obtaining the permission from the concerned authorities since 7-8 months from two months there are less customers and came to know the Petitioner illegally running the office in front of the sub-registrar office without obtaining the permission when she has questioned the same the petitioner has abused her in filthy words and assaulted in his hands and dragged her with an intention to outrage her modesty as a result left hand finger was fractured and the Investigating Officer is already registered the case against the petitioner and visited the spot and drawn the panchanama in the presence of the panchas and seized the material objects which are used for the commission of the offence and yet to record the statement of the witnesses if the petitioner is released on bail there is a chance of tampering and hampering the prosecution witnesses and there is a chance of absconding from the jurisdiction of the court and prays for rejection of the bail petition.

4. Heard the arguments on both sides.

5. The points that arise for Court consideration are as under:

1. Whether the petitioner is entitled to bail at this stage as sought for?

2. What Order?

6. My answer to the aforesaid points are as under:

Point No.1: In the Affirmative.

Point No.2: As per the final order, for the following;

::REASONS::

7. Point No.1 : Before embarking on point No.1 it is just and necessary to narrate the gist of the case for the proper appreciation as the complainant namely one Gagana Deepika M.S W/o Sadashivaiah, Aged about 39 years, Resident of No.1547, High Tension double road, Vijayanagara, 2nd stage, Mysuru stating that she is residing in the above said address along with her family members. Since 7-8 months running Karnataka One office in front of her house after obtaining permission and license from the DC and the ECDC office and the said office running very well since two months the customers are very less so she has enquired the customers and came to know that other Karnataka One office is running in front of Sub-registrar office and came to know that one Ravi is running the said office in the name of Prameela without obtaining license from anybody illegally. Thereby, she has informed the said aspects orally to the ECDC office and DC office on 23.03.2026 at 7.30 p.m. had been to the said office and asked the Ravi about running of the office without obtaining the license for which the said Ravi abused her in filthy words and assaulted in his hands and dragged her with an intention to outrage her modesty and her left hand finger was fractured and she was shouting and pushed her from the office and went to Vistara hospital and took the treatment and doctor advised about the fracture of left hand finger that is the reason why delay has been caused in lodging the complaint. So, based on the said complaint case was came to be registered by the respondent police in their police station crime No.49/2026 for the offences punishable U/Sec. 74, 115(2), 117(2), 352, 351(2) of BNS, 2023 and the Petitioner is apprehending in the hands of the Respondent Police and filed instant petition.

8. The learned Counsel for the Petitioner in his arguments has submitted that the Petitioner is innocent, law-abiding citizen and hails from respectable family but falsely implicated only with an intention to harass the petitioner. The petitioner is ready to abide by the conditions which may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish the surety to the satisfaction of the court though offences alleged against the petitioner are non-bailable in nature but the same are not punishable either life nor death and prays for allow the petition.

9. Per Contra, the learned Public Prosecutor in her arguments has submitted that the bail petition which filed is not maintainable either in law or on facts and if the petitioner is released on bail, there is chances of tamper or hamper the prosecution witnesses and there is chances of absconding from the jurisdiction of the Court and the offences which alleged against the petitioner are triable by this court and prays for reject the bail petition.

10. It is an admitted fact case was came to be registered against the petitioner based on the complaint which filed by one Gagana Deepika M.S W/o Sadashivaiah, according to her she is running the office in the name and style of Karnataka One after getting the permission from the respective office since 7-8 months. But, from 2 months the customers are very less after coming to know that the petitioner is running the office in front of the sub-registrar office unlawfully when she has questioned the same abused in filthy words and assaulted in his hands dragged her with an intention to outrage her modesty. But at this stage court cannot conduct the mini trial to know whether the petitioner is committed the offences which alleged against him or not as it requires full fledged trial. At this stage court has to consider only prima facia materials to believe the reasonable ground about the guilt of the petitioners. But at this stage prosecution has not placed any materials to show that there are sufficient materials to believe the reasonable ground about the guilt of the petitioner.

11. It is an admitted fact the Respondent Police have registered case against the Petitioner for the offences punishable U/Sec. 74, 115(2), 117(2), 352, 351(2) of BNS, 2023 Admittedly, the offences U/Sec. 74 of BNS 2023 is non-bailable in nature, rest of the offences are bailable in nature. Though the offences U/Sec. 74 of BNS 2023 is non-bailable in nature, but the same is not punishable either life nor death which is imprisonment for less than 7 years. Thus this Court drawn its attention on the Judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India reported in 2021 SCC online SC 922 in between Satender Kumar Antil V/s Central Bureau Of Investigation and another. In the said Judgment their lordship held if bail application are pertaining to cases where the punishment is provided upto 7 years of imprisonment the same may be disposed off without taking accused into custody and their Lordship categorized the offences as mentioned below:-

a) Offences punishable with imprisonment of 7 years or less not falling in category B & D.

(b) Category offences punishable death imprisonment for life or imprisonment for more than 7 years.

(c) Offences punishable under Special Acts containing stringent provisions for bail like NDPS, PMLA, UAPA , Companies Act, , etc. Economic offences not covered by Special Acts.

12. In the instant case also the offences which alleged against the Petitioners are less than 7 years, therefore, above Judgment is applicable to the case on hand.

13. The learned Public Prosecutor while canvassing her arguments has much argued that, the petitioners were committed the offences against the woman, thereby the Petitioner is not entitled the relief as sought for. Thus, this Court drawn its attention on the Judgment of the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka passed in Crl.P.No.2743/2025 in between Narayana Reddy and Others V/S State by Pavagada police in the said judgment initially the petitioners were filed the petition under Sec.438 of Cr.P.C and sought for Anticipatory bail for the offences punishable under Sec.115(2), 117(2), 54, 133, 324(4), 351(2), 352, 109 R/w Sec.190 of BNS., and said petition was came to be rejected by the jurisdictional Sessions Court feeling aggrieved by the said order approached the Hon'ble High Court and in the said judgment his Lordship held that none of the accused persons have any criminal antecedents, admittedly the prosecution has not placed any materials on record to show that the petitioner having any criminal antecedents and moreover, the offences which alleged against the petitioner is less than 7 years imprisonment. Thus, considering the apprehension of the prosecution and the materials on record it is just and necessary to allow the petition by imposing stringent conditions it will meet the ends of justice. Hence, I am of the opinion that the Point No.1 is answered in the Affirmative.

14. Point No.2: In view of my answer to the Point No.1 as stated above, I proceed to pass the following;

ORDER

Bail petition filed under Sec.482 of BNSS by the petitioner is hereby Allowed.

The petitioner is ordered to be released in the event of his arrest by the Respondent Police, if not required in relation to any other offence, in Cr.No.49/2026 for the offences punishable U/Sec. 74, 115(2), 117(2), 352, 351(2) of BNS, 2023 on executing personal bond of Rs.50,000/- with one
