

ORDERS ON JOINT MEMO

The joint memo filed by the parties whereby the parties had reported that the parties have arrived at out of the court compromise and that the case is compromised for a sum of ₹.6,00,000/- (Rupees Six Lakhs only), is on record.

2. This court on the last hearing date had inquired with the petitioners, who submitted that they are satisfied with the amount stated in joint memo.

3. The petitioners further submitted that the compromise is voluntary and that they were not subjected to any sort of threat, coercion or undue influence by any person whatsoever in this regard. The parties to the compromise are majors in age and appear to be competent to enter into compromise.

4. The terms of compromise are legally enforceable and hence this court should not have any impediment to accept the same. Further the amount is apportioned in the ratio of 50:50 Hence the following:

ORDER

“The joint memo filed by the parties to the petition is hereby accepted.

The petition stands disposed off as per the terms of joint memo.

The joint memo filed by the parties shall form part of this order.

Further from the settled amount of ₹.6,00,000/-, a sum of ₹.3,00,000/- (Rupees Three Lakhs only) is apportioned towards the share of each of petitioner No.1 and 2.

Further as the amount apportioned in favour of petitioner No.1 and 2 are meagre, the scheme of investment is dispensed with.

The Respondent No.2 is directed to deposit the amount at the earliest without causing unnecessary delay.

Draw award accordingly."

Prl. Judge,
Court of SC., & MACT.,
Mysuru.