

Learned counsel for petitioner and respondent No.2 are present.

Petitioner is absent.

Even otherwise, order sheet reveals that the petitioner has not appeared ever since the filing of the petition.

Learned counsel for petitioners submits that he has not received any instructions from the petitioners.

Order sheet reveals that sufficient opportunities have already been granted and the petitioner does not appear to be interested in contesting the petition. Hence, there is no ground to adjourn the matter any further. Hence, the following:

ORDER:

“In exercise of power vested in this tribunal U/o 9 and U/o 17 of CPC, the petition stands dismissed for non appearance of petitioner despite specific direction and also for non-prosecution.”

Sd/-

Prl. Judge,
Court of SC., & MACT., Mysuru.