

Learned counsel for the petitioner and petitioner are absent.

No representation for petitioner.

Despite sufficient opportunities, the petitioner has not lead evidence and the petitioner has not paid costs as well. It appears that the petitioner is not interested in contesting the petition.

Hence, no grounds are made out to adjourn the matter any further.

Hence, the following:

ORDER

“In exercise of powers vested in this court under order 17 rule 2 and 3 of CPC R/w section 9 of CPC, the execution petition stands dismissed for non-prosecution in view of the absence of the petitioner despite the petitioner being called for hearing and for failure to lead evidence.”
