

BEFORE LOK ADALATH ON
14.03.2026

Matter called before Lok Adalath. Petitioners and learned counsel for the petitioners are present. Learned counsel for the Respondent No.2 is present.

2. Conciliation is held. Parties have agreed to settle the matter for a sum of ₹.24,75,000/- (Rupees Twenty Four Lakhs and Seventy-five thousand only).

3. Joint Memo is filed reporting that the matter as settled for a sum of ₹.24,75,000/- (Rupees Twenty Four Lakhs and Seventy-five thousand only). The contents of Joint Memo are read over and explained to the petitioner.

4. The petitioners submit that they have voluntarily decided to arrive at the compromise and that they were not subjected to any sort of threat, coercion or undue influence by any person whatsoever in this regard. The parties to the compromise are majors in age and appear to be competent to enter into compromise.

5. The terms of compromise are legally enforceable and hence this court should not have any impediment to accept the same. It is agreed that the amount may be apportioned as set out in the affidavit and the amount be released in favor of petitioner No.2 only.

ORDER

“The joint memo filed by the parties to the petition is hereby accepted.

The petition stands disposed off as per the terms of joint memo.

The joint memo filed by the parties shall form part of this order.

The Respondent No.2 is directed to deposit the amount at the earliest without causing unreasonable delay.

In the event of default on the part of the respondent No.2 to deposit the amount, the respondent No.2 shall be liable to pay interest at the rate agreed in the joint memo.

Further from the settled amount, a sum of ₹.8,75,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakhs and Seventy-five Thousand only) is apportioned towards the share of petitioner No.1.

Further from the settled amount, a sum of ₹.8,00,000/- (Rupees Eight Lakhs only) each is apportioned towards the share of petitioner No.2 and 3 respectively.

Considering the quantum of compensation and also considering submissions and contents of the memo filed by learned counsel for the petitioners that the petitioners have purportedly availed loans for the purpose of bearing medical expenses and funeral of the deceased, it is just and necessary to release the entire amount to the petitioners, as they are capable of handling the money.

In view of the affidavit filed consenting for release of entire amount in favor of petitioner No.2, once the compromise amount is deposited, the amounts apportioned towards the share of petitioner No.1 and 3 is ordered to be released in favor of the petitioner No.2 by following due process and procedure prescribed in that regard.

Draw decree accordingly."
