

ORDERS ON JOINT MEMO

The joint memo filed by the parties whereby the petitioner has reported that he has arrived at out of the court compromise and that the case is compromised for a sum of ₹.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand only), is on record.

2. This court inquired with the petitioner, who submits that he is satisfied with the amount stated in joint memo. The petitioner further submitted that the compromise is voluntary and that he was not subjected to any sort of threat, coercion or undue influence by any person whatsoever in this regard. The petitioner is majors in age and appears to be competent to enter into compromise.

3. The terms of compromise are legally enforceable and hence this court should not have any impediment to accept the same. Hence the following:

ORDER

“The joint memo filed by the parties to the petition is hereby accepted.

The petition stands disposed of as per the terms of joint memo.

The joint memo filed by the parties shall form part of this order.

Considering the quantum of compensation and also considering submissions and contents of the memo filed by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has purportedly availed loan for the purpose of bearing his medical expenses and has incurred huge amount towards his medical expenses; and also keeping in mind the nature of injuries suffered by the petitioner, it is just and necessary to release the entire amount to the petitioner, as he is capable of handling the money.

Consequently the petition stands dismissed as against the Respondent No.1.

The Respondent No.2 is directed to deposit the amount at the earliest without causing unnecessary delay.

Draw award accordingly."

Prl. Judge,
Court of SC., & MACT.,
Mysuru.