

25.03.2026

ORDERS ON INTERLOCUTORY APPLICATION FILED UNDER SECTION 151 OF CPC (IA NO. III)
BY THE PETITIONER

Counsel for the petitioner filed IA No.III under section 151 of CPC praying to transfer the petitioner to Hunsur Jurisdictional Court in the interest of justice and equity.

2. In the memorandum of facts counsel for petitioner submitted that the petitioners and the respondents residing in Hunsur and hence pray to transfer the petition to Hunsur Court by allowing the application.

3. Counsel for respondent submitted no objection to allow the application.

4. Heard both side on IA III. Perused the materials on record.

5. On perusal on records it is seen that, both the petitioners and respondents are the residents of Hunsur Taluk. However, this court have no power /jurisdiction to directly transfer the petition. Hence it is necessity to return the petition to the petitioner to present

MVC . 3141/2025

the same before jurisdictional court.
Hence I proceed to pass following

O R D E R

IA No.III filed by the petitioner
U/Sec.151 of CPC is hereby rejected.

By considering the nature of the petition no order as to cost.

Office is directed to return the petition to the petitioners to present
the same before jurisdictional court and also return the original and certified copies of the documents by replacing the copies of the same on proper identification and acknowledgment.

-Sd/-

Judge,
Court of Addl.S.C.& MACT
Mysuru