The counsel for plaintiff submits they have no objection to allow the application. Heard, allowed.

Both the parties and their counsel filed compromise petition U/o 23 Rule 3 of CPC. The contents of said compromise petition have been read over to the both parties and they have admitted the same as true and correct.

Perused the contents of compromise petition, pleadings of the parties and documents produced in the suit. The terms of the compromise are in accordance with law. It appears the compromise is voluntary.

Hence, it is just and proper to record the compromise, since it is a legal one. In the result, I proceed to pass the following:
