

Case called out before the Lok Adalath.

The plaintiff and defendants have filed compromise petition U/o 23 rule 3 of CPC. The contents of said compromise petition have been read over to both parties and they have admitted the same as true and correct.

Perused the contents of joint compromise petition, pleadings of the parties and documents produced in the suit. The terms of the joint compromise are in accordance with law. It appears the joint compromise is voluntary. Hence, it is just and proper to record the joint compromise, since it is a legal one.

In the result, I proceed to pass the following:

ORDER

O.S.No.139/2025

The suit is decreed in terms of Compromise petition filed by the plaintiff and defendants under Order 23, Rule 3 of CPC.

Draw the compromise decree accordingly.

The compromise petition filed by the parties is part and parcel of the compromise decree.

Office is directed to return the Court Fee to the plaintiff.

Accordingly, the matter is disposed-off.
