

CC 979/2021

Both complainant and accused as well as their respective counsel are present. They have filed application u/sec. 147 of N.I. Act. The complainant and accused have amicably settled for total amount of Rs.2,00,000/-. Accordingly the accused paid of Rs. 50,000/- today i.e. 17.04.2026 and remaining balance of Rs.1,50,000/- has to pay on 17.07.2026 without fail. Both the parties agreed the terms of compromise and contents of application filed U/s 147 of the N.I. Act. The complainant and accused and their respective counsel have duly affixed their signature by admitting the terms of application and they have also put their signature on the order sheet by consenting the same. Hence I pass the following

ORDER

Application U/s 147 of the N.I. Act is hereby allowed. The accused shall pay the agreed to pay the amount of Rs.2,00,000/- as agreed as per application filed U/sec 147 of N.I. Act. If the accused will not pay the amount as agreed, the complainant is at liberty to reopen the case and proceed further in accordance with law. In view of settlement

CC 979/2021

between the parties, the case is hereby disposed as settled.

SD/-

I ASCJ and JMFC., Hunsur