

Complainant is absent. Counsel for complainant is present and files memo, notice along with acknowledgment and submitted that the complainant has not contacted for long back. On perusal of order sheet after the registering the case the complainant has not come to proceed in this case. In spite warrant has been issued continuously. Thereafter upon filing of application U/S 82 of Cr.P.C by the counsel for complainant, the proclamation has been issued against accused on 02.04.2025 onwards till today. Proclamation warrant published on 11.06.2025 and then attachment warrant also issued. Thereafter endorsement received from Ilwala Grama Panchayath they stating that there is no property in name of accused and then case is posted for 299 Cr.P.C evidence. But now it is the submission of counsel that the complainant has not contacted and prayed for time. But there is no acceptable reason to adjourn without the presence of complainant. Despite the continues absent goes to show he has not interest at all to proceed further in this case. Hence, prayer of the counsel has been rejected and complaint is hereby dismissed for non prosecution.
